Comment: i used to have tv, totally free. i had plenty of channels, all that i wanted at 7 channels. that is plenty for me. it cost me nothing. the fat cat high overpaid members of the fcc decided that they needed to see that the wallets of american were gouged, so they set up a new system now where you have to buy the kool aid from the tv profitees, who are simply gouging ameirca for tv, home phones that nobody wants or uses anymore, and internet service. the costs are huge $50. a month is basic. that is a gouge. this service doesnt need to cost that much and there should be simple plans available. you guys are allowing the gouging ofamerica. nobody can afford the tv or internet anymore. they all hve the same rates so it is a monopoly. nobody charges less, why is that. why dont we have the anti monopoly laws being prosecuted against these communication providers. why are we allbeing gouged tothe max.
